Todd is the smallest ever frog
To live in Blue Pond in a log.

He likes to stare up at the sky,
And wonder why the frogs can't fly.

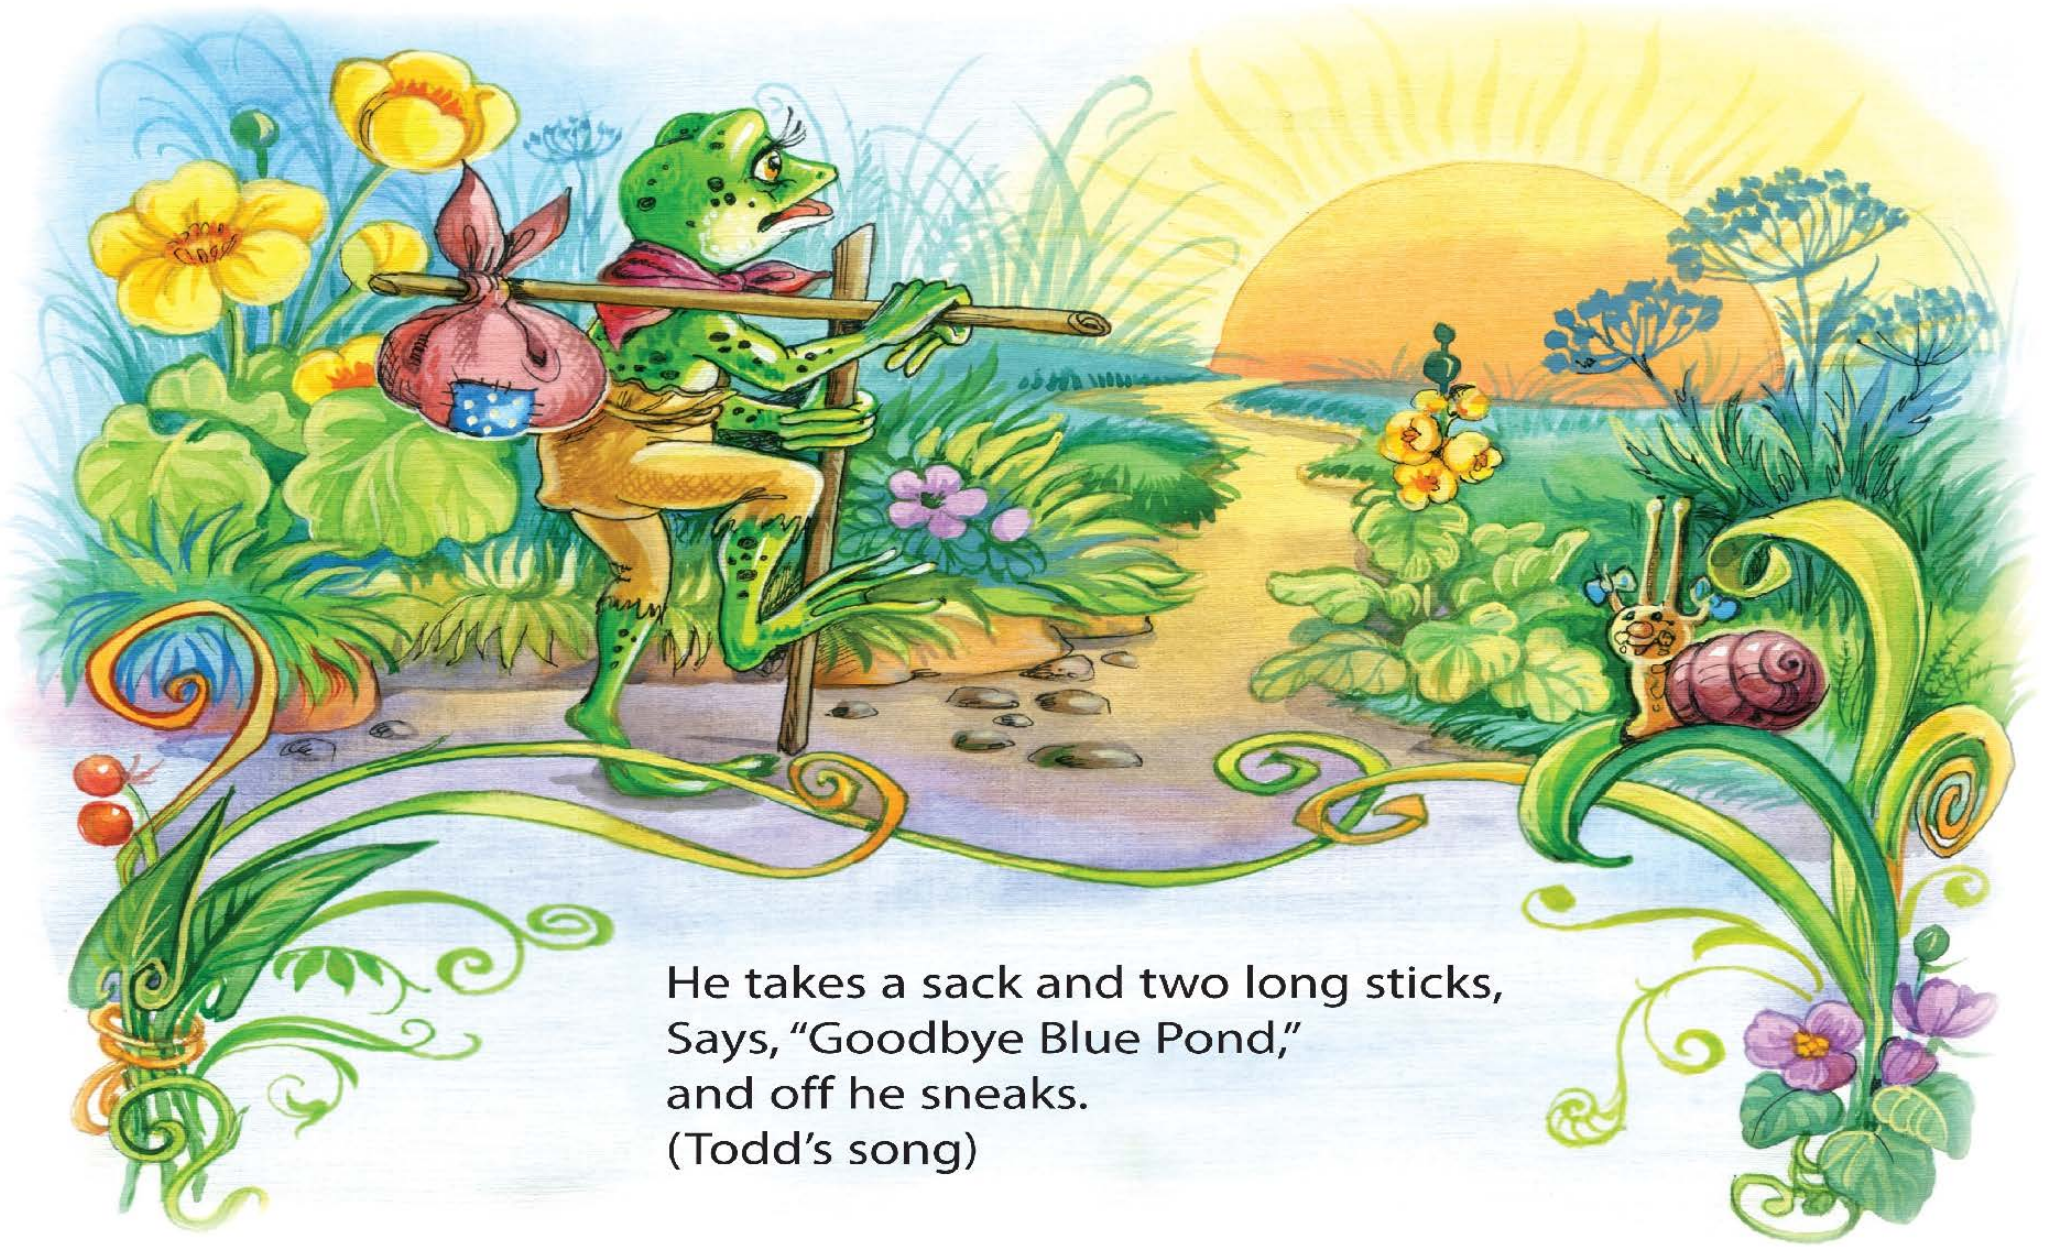

But Todd's name is his big pain
In the sun and in the rain.
Frogs twist his name, making fun,
Sharing jokes with everyone.

Every day is just the same,
Frogs keep asking Todd his name.
Todd decides to run away,
Hoping for a better day.

He takes a sack and two long sticks,
Says, "Goodbye Blue Pond," and off he sneaks.
(Todd's song)
